Three Brothers Will

Pass From Their Cells to the Chair
of Execution.

How Have They Decided

Being Fully Aware That No Human Will Now
Avail to Save Them From Retribution for Murder of An Uncle--Second Brother
Confesses to the Crime.

Lima, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Not a sensational feature marks the preparation for the execution at noon tomorrow of the three Van Wormer brothers, condemned to die for the murder of their uncle, Peter A. Halbeck.

The three young men, fully aware that no human power will now avail to save them from their fate, await death with the calmness they have displayed ever since they arrived at prison.

Warden Deyo refuses to say in advance what order the brothers will be taken to the chair, except that Burton will be the second. Upon their physical and mental condition at the time will depend whether Willis, the eldest, or Odell, the youngest, will go first. Early tomorrow, a screen will be placed in the corridor so as to prevent any of them from seeing his brother taken from the cell to the execution chamber.

State Executioner Davis, who will have personal charge of the electric apparatus with which the Van Wormers will be killed, arrived today with mechanism, and spent the greater part of the day in making tests and overhauling the wiring which will conduct the current. All who are to have part in the execution have been fully instructed in their duties. There will be a separate set of keepers to conduct each of the brothers to the death chamber.

Keeper John Healey, who left the prison at midnight, reports a statement made twice to him by Burton, the second brother, in which he said: "I wish it were possible for Gov. Odell to save the lives of my brothers, for it was I who killed my uncle. They shot about the room. My bullets were those which killed him."

The surgeons who performed the autopsy upon Mr. Halbeck's body found a dozen or more bullets in various parts of the body.

Last night and this morning, the brothers spent hours writing letters, which by the end of the day, will number forty or more, addressed to acquaintances in many places. They are read and passed upon by the warden, who will mail them. The condemned men spent much time also in discussing the manner of their walk to the death chair, agreeing to walk quietly to the chair, with eyes fixed on the crucifix which each will carry.

ET-RICH-QUICK HAULED TO COURTS

Under Instructions From Circuit Attorney Foulk,
Six Members and Employees of St. Louis
Concern are Placed Under Arrest.

Meeting of Woman's Auxiliary.

BLUE JACKET STOOD GUARD.

But Delegates Kept Away From
Meeting of Woman's Auxiliary.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 30.—A sail from the naval reserve practice ship Elfrida, which is stationed in this port was posted as a guard at the entrance of the room in the second regiment armory used for convention purposes by the Woman's National Auxiliary of Spanish War Veterans' society. At the meeting, at which the election officers were the chief business, and very quietly with prayer, and were taken to the four courts in a patrol wagon. Grand jury subpoenas were issued against those arrested, as follows: Hugh C. Dennis, president; Harry Dennis, J. D. McDonald, Margaret Mulhall, Miss Nell Sturdy and Fred Weeks. They were held in one of the rooms adjoining the grand jury room to be examined as witnesses.

A large crowd of the unemployed laborers stood about the company's offices, but were orderly. One man charged with having participated in the riot, was arrested this morning. The additional troops from Toronto numbering about 200 militia arrived here about 5 o'clock. Soon afterward a train left over the Algoma Central railroad for Wilde Station to bring back the woodsmen who were left there Monday when the rioting broke out about the company's works. The train is in charge of 25 soldiers.

Later Alexander Brunton, who says he has been in the employ of the Consolidated Lake Superior Co. for three years, was arrested, charged with intimidation and inciting to riot. With Charles Martin, who was arrested near the office of the company this morning, he was brought before Magistrate Quibel, and remanded for trial on October 5, when the cases of the other nine men who have been under arrest, charged with offenses of a similar nature will be heard.

HAS RESUMED ITS SESSIONS

Board of Conciliation Considering Disputes Between Coal Operators and Employees.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 30.—The board of conciliation, appointed to settle disputes between operators and their employees in the anthracite region, has resumed its sessions in this city. All of the members of the board were present, and about 20 employees of the mines were present to give testimony in grievance cases which were scheduled to come before the board.

ON MEETING THEY KISSED.

Czar Given Hearty Reception by Emperor Francis Joseph
and Suite.

Vienna, Sept. 30.—The czar, accompanied by a numerous suite, including Foreign Minister Lamsdorff, arrived here today, and was met at the railroad station by Emperor Francis Joseph and the arch dukes. The greetings of the monarchs were of the heartiest character. They kissed each other twice. A royal salute was fired. Their majesties were driven to Schoenbrunn castle, the route being lined by troops and enormous crowds of people. The state luncheon at the castle was attended by the emperors, arch dukes, the arch duchesses, Count Lamsdorff, the Austrian-Hungarian foreign minister, Count Goltzowski, the Russian ambassador, the Austrian ministers, and others.

CAR TRAFFIC WAS RESUMED

At Soo Without Any Demonstration
By Large Crowd of Idle Men.

Sault Ste Marie, Mich., Sept. 30.—Street car traffic in the Canadian Soo, which has been suspended during the disturbed condition of affairs here incident to the closing of the Consolidated Lake Superior Co. industries, was resumed today, without demonstration of any kind on the part of the discharged employees. Col. Buchanan, who arrived last night in charge of the detachment of troops from Toronto, today relieved Col. Elliott, of the local military, and assumed command. The sentries were ordered to quarters, and the soldiers from Toronto took their places, about the various plants of the concern.

A large crowd of the unemployed laborers stood about the company's offices, but were orderly. One man charged with having participated in the riot, was arrested this morning.

The additional troops from Toronto numbering about 200 militia arrived here about 5 o'clock. Soon afterward a train left over the Algoma Central railroad for Wilde Station to bring back the woodsmen who were left there Monday when the rioting broke out about the company's works. The train is in charge of 25 soldiers.

Later Alexander Brunton, who says he has been in the employ of the Consolidated Lake Superior Co. for three years, was arrested, charged with intimidation and inciting to riot. With Charles Martin, who was arrested near the office of the company this morning, he was brought before Magistrate Quibel, and remanded for trial on October 5, when the cases of the other nine men who have been under arrest, charged with offenses of a similar nature will be heard.

Brunton is accused by the police of going to the International hotel, owned by the company and ordering the manager to remove the women before a plan to burn the hostelry was carried out.

WANTS SPECIAL ELECTION.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 30.—Gov. Beckham has issued a call for a special election for November 10 to elect a successor to Vincent Roering, congressman from the 11th district, who died about two weeks ago. Nov. 10 is the date of the state election.

RAG PICKERS HAVE STRUCK FOR RECOGNITION.

New York, Sept. 30.—Rag pickers of the east side, have struck for the recognition of their union recently formed. A picket belonging to the union was arrested, but the strike leaders are confident of victory.

MORE CANAL DISCUSSION.

London, Sept. 30.—Hannis Taylor, of counsel for the United States at this morning's session of the Alaskan boundary commission, continued his argument dealing with the international law phase of the dispute. He declared that the construction put by the Canadians on various terms employed in the controversy, was not justified by international law, especially the reference to the general trend of the coast, and the mention made of canals.

AMBASSADOR HERBERT DEAD.

London, Sept. 30.—Sir Michael Herbert, the British Ambassador to the United States, died today, at Davos-Platz, Switzerland.

A despatch from Paris, on Sept. 12 said that Lady Herbert, wife of the British Ambassador at Washington, was devotedly nursing her delicate husband back to health at Davos-Platz.

With the hope of restoring her husband, Lady Herbert was living at Davos-Platz though the resort was deserted at that time of the year.

Lady Herbert was formerly Miss

WILL ATTEND INSTITUTING

Order of Knights of Columbus in Porto Rico, Sunday, December 13th.

New York, Sept. 30.—The supreme council of the Knights of Columbus intend instituting the order in Porto Rico on Sunday, Dec. 13, and for that purpose, it is planned to send about 150 members of the order to Porto Rico. The delegation, headed by Supreme Knight F. L. Hearn, will sail from New York and will include representatives from New Orleans, Atlanta, Mobile, Birmingham, Montgomery and other southern cities. There will also be a large number from the eastern states.

Lella Wilson, daughter of Richard T. Wilson, the New York banker, and is related to the Vanderbilt, Ogden, Golet and Astor families.

Due to Consumption.
The death of Sir Michael Herbert was announced at today's session of the Alaskan boundary commission by Chief Justice Alverstone. It was supposed due to rapid consumption, from which the ambassador is known to have suffered from the time of his appointment to Washington. Counsel on both sides paid tributes to the dead ambassador.

AIR FULL OF RUMOR.

Two Measures That Might Bring on a Split Were Talked About.

If Attitude of Convention Toward Buchanan's
Address is Unfavorable, it Is Probable
He Will Withdraw Entirely
From the Meeting.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 30.—Rumors of a split that might finally result in the disruption of the International Association of Structural Iron and Bridge Workers' were again rife today. Practically all routine of the convention had been cleared away when today's session began, and it was predicted that the long expected final fight between the Parks' and the anti-Parks' factions would promptly materialize. Two matters that might bring on the row, were ready for consideration—the report of the committee on president's address, and the resolution offered by Samuel Parks, to raise money by assessment for local number "Two" of New York. The Buchanan crowd would, it was stated, fight the appropriation resolution, while Parks and his followers were expected to attack President Buchanan for his attitude in his address on New Jersey matters.

President Buchanan's candidacy for re-election, seemed likely to turn upon the convention's attitude on his address. If it should be unfavorable to him, he might, it was said, surrender the chair and carry out his threat of yesterday to leave the situation entirely in the hands of the Parks' men.

The matter of assessment will come up when a resolution signed by P. Mackin of Chicago, as chairman, and H. F. Donnelly of Albany, of the grievance committee, giving "Local Union No. 2 of New York, the full support, morally and financially, of the international association" is considered. This resolution was referred to a committee, which will submit to the convention some plan for raising the funds asked by the Parks' men.

Another fight may come up over a movement headed by delegate Walls of Chicago, to unseat the three inside men, or shopmen, from New York, who last week were given representation in the convention. The shop men represent 50,000 in the country and they wish to affiliate with the outside men. They were seated through the influence of Samuel Parks. President Buchanan wants them ousted. Delegate Fitzpatrick, one of the three inside men, says if they are unseated he will go back to New York and fight the outside men.

An important action was the concurrence, without debate, in the petition submitted on Monday by locals from Minneapolis, Denver, Salt Lake City, Des Moines and Kansas City, recommending action be taken to either force certain western roads to pay standard wages or to let their bridge work to contractors who are fair to organized labor.

Plans for carrying this out will be taken up later.

INSPECTORS RAID NEWSPAPER OFFICE.

Victor, Colo., Sept. 30.—The office of the "Victor Daily Record" the official organ of the miner's union, was raided by officers of the postoffice inspectors office late last night. The editorial force was arrested and the paper closed on a charge of publishing and sending seditious articles through the mails.

WORRY CAUSED HIM TO SUICIDE.

Harriaburg, Penna., Sept. 30.—Dr. Wilson W. Stroup, aged 64 years, committed suicide by shooting himself with a revolver today at his home in this city. Dr. Stroup was to have been arraigned in court this afternoon on a serious charge. Worry over this charge is believed to have caused him to take his life.

MAY BOLT THE TICKET.

Platt and Odell Hold Conference In Order to Clarify the Situation.

Fusionist Leaders Fear to Remove Any of Their Candidates, as Such Action Would Further Complicate the Already Involved Conditions--Fusion Opening Delayed.

New York, Sept. 30.—The earlier hours of the day brought no clarity to the complicated political situation in Greater New York. The spirit of hostility created among the fusionists by the attitude of comptroller Grout, and President Forney, toward the Tammany coup of placing them on the democratic ticket, is growing and the crisis of the incident must soon be reached. Senator Platt and Gov. Odell, held a long conference at the Fifth avenue hotel, this morning, and it is expected that some formal statement will be given out by them later on. The fusionist leaders have been advised that no legal obstacles bar the way to the removal of any candidate from their ticket, but any attempt to do so will be resisted, and such action would further complicate the already involved situation. Leader Murphy of Tammany still maintains that he will at the democratic convention tomorrow night, carry out the plan of nominating Congressman McClellan for mayor, and placing Grout and Forney on the ticket. The King's county organization led by Hugh McLaughlin, will probably accept McClellan, but may bolt Grout and Forney. Shortly before noon, Mr. Fulton Cutting announced that he had addressed a letter to Grout, asking him to define his position in a manner that would leave no possible room for doubt. The complication over the Grout-Forney-Tammany incident, will probably lead to the abandonment of the fusion plan to open the campaign on Saturday night. It had been intended to have a monster meeting with Low, Grout and Forney as the principal speakers.

THIRD AND FINAL TOOK PLACE TODAY.

Umpires Will Not Announce Plans Until Tomorrow, When Their Decision Regarding Movements Will Be Made Public.

Camp Young, West Point, Ky., Sept. 30.—The third and final one of a series of maneuvers participated in by the regular troops exclusively, took place today, and proved on the whole, most interesting of all from a tactical point of view. Tomorrow, the state militia will arrive and until the 10,000 national guardsmen from six states get settled in camp, there will be little doing in the field. The state troops are expected, however, to be ready for operations, Friday.

Today's maneuver was based on the condition of the army on the retreat toward Nashville, and the blue acting on the offensive. The action was easier to follow than that of Monday, on account of requirement for attack and defense of an outpost by an advance guard of slightly superior strength. The position was consequently fixed with a fair amount of precision, and the opposing forces covered less ground.

The umpires will not announce the plans of the action until tomorrow, when their decision regarding the series of three connected movements will be made public.

Thus far, the troops have been absolutely unhampered by spectators. The long "hikes" through rough country have prevented the gathering of non-combatants almost entirely.

CARTER IS ON A HIGH HORSE.

Mayor of Chicago Will Devote Balance
of Term to Landing Grafters.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—"If I could discharge all the men I suspect of grafting, they would be jumping out of every window in the city hall."

"This hall is full of 'graft' big and little—you know it, and can't prove it."

"I've got eighteen months left, and I'll get some of them yet." With these and other frank declarations, Mayor Harrison has expressed himself on the subject of municipal service. He asserted that his hands were tied; that convincing proof could not be insured to establish guilt, but that in the remaining months of his administration, some means would be found to clean out a number of departments.

"Suspensions were not proofs," the mayor said, "and proofs were necessary to discharge a man under the civil service laws." He declared it to be an impossibility to get sufficient evidence in many cases.

The police department he said, was full of suspected persons, and wholesale removals would be the result if the power to discharge were in his hands.

PRIVATE WATCHMAN PLUCKED HIS MAN.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—One of four robbers was shot and fatally wounded this morning, by Theodore Ray, whom they attempted to hold up. Ray, who is a private watchman, emptied his revolver at his assailants. Watchman Ray was making his rounds, when two men confronted him with revolvers, and two more threatened him from the rear. Instead of throwing up his hands, Ray drew his revolver, and began shooting. One of the men fell to the street at the first fire, and the others, after shooting at the watchman, fled. Ray was not wounded.

TRAVIS HOME WELL GUARDED.

Fifty Detectives Seeking to Find Who Is Guilty of Outrages.

Reward of Five Thousand Dollars Offered by Governor of Montana Expires Nov. 30, But Will Be Renewed.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 30.—A special from Helena to the Despatch says: "It has developed that the threats made by the Northern Pacific dynamiters against the Helena police were directed against the residence of Chief of Police Thomas Travis and not the city jail as first reported. The letter contained personal threats against Chief Travis and Detective O'Brien, who has been investigating in Butte, where an explosion of dynamite had wrecked a street car and endangered the lives of six passengers. The dynamite in that instance it is thought was placed on the street car tracks by mistake, as they are near the Northern Pacific tracks. The Travis residence is being heavily guarded. Altogether 50 detectives are now at work on the case."

The reward of $5,000 offered by Governor Toole for the capture of the dynamiters expires September 30th, but it will be promptly renewed.

DISMISSED CASE OF TAYLOR AND OTHERS

To Restrain Voting of Stock Held by the Union Pacific Railway at Annual Election of Southern Pacific Company.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 30.—The case of Talbot J. Taylor and others to restrain the voting of stock held by the Union Pacific Railway at the annual election of the Southern Pacific Company, was today formally dismissed in the United States circuit court of appeals on telegraphic advice from counsel in New York. Representatives of Senator Foraker for the Keene interests and Lawrence H. Bell for the Harriman interests, looked after the formal dismissal of

CROP REPORT.

Washington, Sept. 30.—The weather bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions is as follows: The temperature conditions of the week ending Sept. 28 were generally favorable, although cool nights were detrimental in the south Atlantic, eastern and central gulf states, while light to heavy frosts for the month are causing no serious injury.

A marked feature of the week was the absence of rain or the occurrence of only very light showers, over much the greater part of the country east of the Rocky Mountains, there being only a few areas of comparatively limited extent in the upper Missouri valley, lake region, and the coasts districts of the middle Atlantic states and southern New England, in which the rain fall exceeded the average. Drought continues in the Ohio valley and with increased severity in Tennessee and the central and west gulf states. No unfavorable conditions are reported from the Pacific coast, although rain in southern California may possibly have caused slight injury. Southern Arizona and southwestern New Mexico received unusually heavy rains for that region, more than two inches being recorded from several stations.

The principal corn states have experienced weather conditions exceptionally favorable for maturing late corn and while frosts have been quite general over the central and eastern portions of the corn belt, no material damage is indicated. Probably less than 20 percent of the crop in Iowa is unharmed and while the proportion yet exposed to injury in South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin is greater, the immature will make good feed farther south only a very small part of the crop is still soft. Cutting is generally in all sections and some new corn has been marketed in southern Kansas.

While the conditions have been favorable for threshing spring wheat in the spring wheat region, reports of dampness of grain in shock as a result of previous rains, continue. Harvest is now completed in the north Pacific coast and threshing far advanced.

New Serbian Society to Be Organized to Aid Countrymen in Macedonia.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 30.—Delegates to the annual convention of the Serbian Orthodox Brotherhood society now in session here will remain in Pittsburg after the close of the convention and form a society, the object of which will be to lend assistance to their countrymen in Macedonia. Projectors of the new movement will not talk on their plans or of the methods proposed. They will be necessarily secret, but it is said they will involve nothing unlawful. The principal purpose of the organization will be the tracing of lost families in the zone of the recent terror, and the furnishing of financial aid.

THE STAGE.

"Way Down East," Lottie Blair Parker's idyllic play of New England farm life plays an engagement at the Faurot opera house tonight. The play is one that appeals not to a limited class, but to everybody with a spark of sympathy, a liking for an interesting story and a relish for good wholesome fun. There are many reasons for its popularity—its pathetic theme, its genial humor, its charming pictures of country life, its quaint characters and striking realism, but its most potent element undoubtedly is the strong human interest that permeates every scene. To this all classes and creeds must yield their sympathy.

Mrs. Parker's work, so admirably produced under the skillful direction of Mr. Joseph Grismer, will be interpreted by the same great cast as was seen at the Academy of Music, New York City, and the piece will be staged in precisely the same manner as during its metropolitan run.

The dialogue of "Slaves of the Mine," the new heart story of the Anthracite district, by C. E. Callahan and Daniel L. Hart, is always forceful and often witty, the characters quaint and natural, being drawn from real personages living near Wilkes Barre; and the climaxes while very strong and effective, are never overdrawn, or beyond the bounds of reason. The comedy situations are extremely funny, and there are no more humorous beings upon the stage than Nancy Davis, the coal bank girl, Sam Potts, the man of cards, or Hugh Dougherty, the Hibernian American, who despises "Furriners." The Eagle Quartette is acknowledged to be without a superior. If an equal. The scenery is all special, and extremely realistic.

This big production of "Slaves of the Mine" will be seen at Faurot opera house next Friday night.

TROOPS ALL SENT TO CAMPS OUTSIDE.

London, Sept. 30.—Advices received here from Kabul, Afghanistan, under date of August 31, say the cholera epidemic is abating. Several prominent persons were victims of the disease. Rigorous measures were adopted to check its spread. The troops at Kabul were all moved into camps outside the walls and the population was forbidden to eat fruit or vegetables. Any infringement of the regulations was punishable by death. By order of the Ameer, food was distributed to the poor. The Ameer, Habib Ullah Khan, went to the Pashan Mountains (near Kabul) for a change of air, as he is still liable to attacks of hectic fever.

LEAGUE

Organized by the Lima Bowlers,

And the Contest Will Last 28 Weeks.

Purse of $75 Will Be Distributed at the Close of the Season.

—Games Begin on Monday.

The bowling league, which was predicted some time ago would be organized, is now a certainty, and there will be an interesting struggle during the season between at least nine teams, and probably ten.

Captains have been chosen so far as follows: Milt Reed, H. Hauenstein, R. McCarthy, N. Hackney, Wm. Havil, Frank Burkhardt, Wm. Regan, Wm. Thurman and T. Fox. A meeting was held last night and the name adopted is "The Lima Bowling League." A schedule has been prepared, which will give each team a chance to play two games a week for 28 weeks, and the proprietor of the Metropolitan has put up a purse of $75, which will be divided as follows: To the team making the highest percentage, $25; second highest, $20; third highest, $15; the highest team roll, $10; and to the individual making the highest score, $5.

There will also be several match games with out of town teams, which will add interest to the sport. The first contest between league teams will take place next Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective medicine and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by H. F. Vorkamp, druggist.

RURAL FREE.

Delivery Carriers of Allen County, Attention!

There will be a meeting of the R. F. D. carriers of Allen county, in the basement of Lima postoffice on Saturday, October 3rd, at 7:30 p. m. Business of importance regarding the service. All carriers of Allen county get in line for mutual benefit. By order of secretary.

HURRICANE WHICH SWEEP

Island Reached Velocity of 100 Miles an Hour One Fatality Resulted.

New York, Sept. 30.—The hurricane which swept the Bermudas Monday last, reached a velocity of 100 miles an hour, says a Herald dispatch, from Hamilton. Great rollers from the southeast to the east showed the disturbance of the ocean and the inhabitants rushed into the streets. George Harris was killed underneath a falling wall.

Hundreds of houses were damaged, many losing their roofs. The banana industry was badly injured. The streets are filled with debris, and the islands presents a battered aspect. The losses amount to thousands of pounds.

Big Figures.

100,000,000 bottles of Perry Davis' Painkiller sold in 60 years. Just think! Nearly enough placed end to end to reach around the world. What other remedy can boast such a record of services to humanity in curing stomach and bowel complaints and the many other ailments and accidents constantly occurring even in the most careful homes. There is only one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. Beware of imitations.

The Ladies Aid society of First U. B. church, will meet Thursday afternoon at the church. A full attendance is desired.

MRS. ALEXANDER, Secy.

WILL SMOKE UP.

New York, Sept. 30.—Six hundred smoking pipe makers of this city, have returned to work after having been locked out for six weeks, for starting a strike. An agreement is said to have been reached whereby union men will be allowed to work in the factories.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, Sept. 29.—For Ohio
and Pennsylvania: Rain and warmer
tonight; Thursday rain.

Hanna will neither "stand pat" or
on his feet, before Clarke.

Wonder if the car bearing Hanna,
Herrick and Harding, which ran off
the track at Berlin Heights, yesterday,
was "overturned."

There will be an election in Ohio
in November, no matter how many anti-election statements Dick makes
as to the majority the republican ticket will have.

There must be something the matter with republican issues this year,
else the candidates of that party for national and state issues would not refuse to discuss on the same rostrum
with democratic candidates.

It is a poor lot of spellbinders who
can't keep a street car on its track,
and how they can expect to influence
the people of Ohio, supposes comprehension. The next time a spellbinder's car attempts to get out of the regular rut, Hanna should undertake the question with it. Perhaps this particular car objected to carrying spell-

binders on passes, while the people of Cleveland have to pay a three cent
fare.

Cincinnati, the garden spot owned by Geo. B. Cox, has the annexing fever, generated by a desire on the part of the garden owner to own as big
a town as Tom Johnson. Three villages have already been absorbed. To that there will be no great objection raised. Boss Cox can take in all the adjacent territory he wants to. He can even annex Newport and Jackson county, Kentucky, but the people of this part of Ohio, will not stand for his making the Miami and Erie canal
a part of his holdings.

Little Messy Suit Being Recorded.

Probable Judge Miller went to the home of Leanne Elizabeth Boyd yesterday afternoon near Lafayette,
where he held an inquest and has made application for the admission of the woman to the asylum at Toledo.
Her condition is more of the imbecile
than an insane person, and the court
is of the opinion that the state authorities will refuse to take her, thus making it incumbent on the infirmary directors to do so. She is 56 years of age and her helpless condition is due to a stroke of paralysis which occurred five or six years ago.

to be but a temporary one.

were mortgages and one a transfer of property. The deed for 27 feet of the

DREAM

Nothing In It

Say Local Officials of
C., H. & D.,

In Regard to Report From Findlay That Electricity
Is to Be Used.

Findlay-Deahler Branch Will Be Operated By Steam as Usual,
and the Rumor Is Treated as a Laughing Matter.

Local officials were interrogated
here today in regard to the publication
sent out from Findlay that the line
from that city to Deshler is to be discontinued as a steam railroad and converted into an electric line. While acknowledging that they had not been taken into confidence in regard to the startling change, they all treat it as a laughing matter and declare themselves as satisfied that no such purpose exists in the minds of those who have authority to suggest such a departure.

The Findlay Republican made much
of the venture and handled it as an absolute certainty, but as Lima happens to be headquarters for all such controversies pertaining to the northern branches, the assurance that nothing
is known of it here, gives a black eye
to the Findlay "scoop."

SIDNEY

Spread it All Over the Cincinnati Reds.

Bob Ewing Got a Dressing Down
by the Lads at His Old Home.

The Enquirer today says that Sidney is joy-struck—and why not. Long Bob Ewing, who would rather have had it occur anywhere else in the world, was as easy as a rural moss-
back in the hands of a green goods
agent, and his record stands as a comparison with his great game in New York where he pitched nine innings with a no-hit column. Sidney took his measure, long as it is, and piled up 22 hits, with a total of 35
bases. On the other hand, the old league cast-off, Knepper, was in splendid form, and there were but two of the Reds able to solve his delivery. Five hits, which netted two runs, was the total for nine innings,
and the score stood 14 to 2 in favor of Sidney. No wonder Sidney is joy-struck.

Ren. Mulford, Jr., the well-known base ball editor of the Enquirer pays Lima's new ball park, the following
"Compliment":

"Lima's grand stand is the most unique structure in all Ball-dom. It is built with uncultured uprightness—
young trees with the limbs chopped off.
The roof is of brown paper, and foul
balls that drop thereon, shoot right on through into the crowd. Lima either needs more fence about the old cornfield or a company of state militia
to drive the deadbeats out of visual range."

expected to have it.

HE WANTS YOUNG MEN

To Come Forward and Assume Their Share of Important Work.

President of Cotton Association Points Forcibly
to the Evils Speculation Is Bringing Upon
the Industry and the People Dependent Upon It.

Lenox, Mass., Sept. 30.—When President Herbert E. Walmsey, of New Bedford today gave the call to order for the semi-annual meeting of the New England Cotton Manufacturers' Association, nearly 200 members were present. As this was the mid-year assembly, the principal item of a routine nature was the presentation of the address of the president. The secretary and treasurer do not report at the semi-annual meetings. In his address, President Walmsey urged the young men in the association
to come to the front and assume their share in the work of the association.
He referred to the unsatisfactory condition of the cotton trade at the present time, and said the past few months
had been one of the most difficult periods ever experienced.

"It is a deplorable circumstance
that the pernicious practice of corner-
ing such a necessary staple as cotton should be possible, demoralizing and paralyzing an industry of such an immense wealth to individuals, and to the nation as that of cotton manufacturing, throwing out of employment

and reducing to the verge of starvation, the thousands of families whose very existence is dependent upon the continued and steady operation of the factories where they find employment.
The baneful influence of this speculative manipulation of cotton is a matter for serious concern, and for which
there can be no justification whatsoever."

"The force of these considerations
should surely be sufficient to justify some concerted and united action towards putting a stop to the gambling
operations, which inflict such widespread suffering and injury upon so
many and such important interests."

In referring to cotton manufacturing in the South, President Walmsey said: "We warmly congratulate the South on the great development of its natural and industrial resources.
There is surely ample room for both North and South. The supremacy of cotton manufacturing in New England in my opinion, will continue to be unassailable."

Following the president's address,
papers were read on various technical subjects.

LAWYERS HAVE SWAY

In Trial of Tillman for the Murder of Editor Gonzales.

Every Step is Being Fought Bitterly, and South Carolina May Have Additional Blood
on Her Head Before the Case Is Finished.

Lexington, S. C., Sept. 30.—At the beginning of the third day of the trial of James H. Tillman, only a few spectators were present. Dr. B. W.
Taylor, one of the Columbia physicians who assisted in the operation performed on N. G. Gonzales, resumed his testimony.

Mr. Gonzales was under the influence of an anesthetic and on the operating table, when the doctor first saw him at the hospital.

He said he had no hope of the patient's recovery after he examined the wounds. The witness was questioned
at some length relative to the stimulants administered to Mr. Gonzales,
their purpose and effects.

Dr. F. H. McIntosh, the next witness, said he rode in the ambulance
with Mr. Gonzales to the hospital after the shooting and that they were alone in the ambulance.

Asked if Gonzales said anything to him on the way to the hospital, the doctor said Gonzales looked about the ambulance to see if they were alone,
and asked him to state frankly if he was mortally wounded. Witness said he was afraid he was, and that Gonzales said: "Yes, I think the fellow got me."

The doctor then told of the course
of treatment pursued, and said he believed death to have resulted from the gunshot wound.

J. A. Hoyt, of the editorial staff of the Columbia State, saw Mr. Gonzales
in the State office about fifteen minutes after the shooting. He was suffering intensely, witness said, but rallied. He was with him continuously then until he was removed to the hospital.

"Did he say anything about his condition?" the solicitor asked.

"Yes, he said he was afraid he would die before his wife got there,"
witness replied.

Asked if Gonzales made any statement to him, Mr. Hoyt said he had told him all about the shooting.

Objection was raised by the defense to the admission of the statement which Mr. Hoyt says Mr. Gonzales made to him regarding the shooting and a lengthy argument ensued. Counsel for Mr. Tillman contended that it was not competent,
dwelling on the testimony of Dr. Griffith, who says Gonzales smiled when he (Dr. Griffith) gave him some encouragement after administering morphine. The question arose as to the precise moment when this occurred,
and especially with reference to the time the statement was made by Gonzales to Mr. Hoyt, and to the witness proceeding Mr. Hoyt, W. C. Wallace,
a compositor in the State office. Counsel for defense insisted that the statements testified to as having been made by Gonzales relative to his condition, showed apprehension and not a conviction that he was going to die.

Counsel for the prosecution contended that the statement which witness Hoyt said Gonzales made to him, showed that Gonzales believed death imminent when he talked to Hoyt, and stress was laid upon the additional declarations testified to by Dr. Mc-Intosh and Mr. Wallace. At 12:30 argument on the objection was still in progress.

Argument was concluded at 1:30 p. m., when Judge Gary ruled that the statement which Hoyt said Gonzales
made to him could be admitted.
Recess then was taken until four p. m.

Railroads.

James S. Davis, who, for the past seven years, has been a popular and faithful employe in the service of the C. H. & D. railroad company, left his desk in the clerk's department at the car shops office today, and will venture into business. Mr. Davis has entered into a partnership with Harry Rumpel and the firm of Rumpel & Davis will hereafter be a prominent

one in local business circles. They will engage in the coal business with offices and yards at 713 South Central avenue.

Mr. Davis has always won distinction as a hustler and the success of his new venture is assured. He is also quite prominent in secret order
circles, having organized Lima's famous "Jun-bo" division of the Uniform
Rank, Knights of the Maccabees.

Glenn Makes a Good Run.
Engineer W. M. Glenn and fireman
B. G. Glass brought Pennsylvania
mail train No. 19, from Crestline to this city Saturday evening, and made up fifty of the ninety seven minutes
the train was behind time when turned over to them. En route some exceedingly good spurts of speed were made, for instance the run from Lima
to this city, sixty miles, was covered in fifty-eight minutes.—Ft. Wayne Sentinel.

Long Run Record.
The Ft. Wayne Sentinel contains
the following:

A special train carrying General Manager G. L. Peck and some of the other Pennsylvania officials, established a new long distance fast run on the western division, yesterday. The train left Crestline at 11:16 in the forenoon, and reached Clark Junction
at 3:51 in the afternoon, covering the 257 miles in 275 minutes, including the stops for water and exchange of engines. The best previous run over this portion of the road was 297 minutes. Two hours and fourteen minutes were consumed in the run from Crestline to Fort Wayne, and two hours and eleven minutes were consumed in the run from Fort Wayne
to Clark Junction. Engineer D. P.
Eldred and fireman J. Koch were in the cab on division C, and engineer
W. H. Gates and fireman Frank Spidel
occupied the cab on division D.

At the C. H. & D. Shops,
Passenger Car Foreman Geo. Hitch,
has returned from Cincinnati, where
he went for the purpose of going over
and taking measurements of the pay car which is to be brought to Lima for the purpose of a general overhauling.
Traveling engineer F. O. Miller, is in Lima, and will spend two weeks
looking after his department on the north end.

On account of several minor accidents, resulting in damage to engines,
the machine shops and the round

CITY WINS IN SUPREME COURT.

Decision Handed Down Today In Findlay Street Opening Case.

Attorney D. C. Henderson received a telegram from Columbus this morning, announcing that the supreme court had handed down a decision in his favor in the action brought by him when he represented the city of Lima as city solicitor, for the opening of east Findlay street, across the tracks and right of way of the C. H.
& D. railway. The decision of the court was rendered this morning, and the court's mandate will be issued
within a few days.

The Findlay street opening proposition is one that has been hotly contested by the C. H. & D. and the various councils of this city for a period of 27 years, and the litigation that terminates with the Supreme court's decision of today, was commenced by Mr. Henderson, four years ago. The case was fought twice in common pleas court, twice in the circuit court

and once in the Supreme court. Too much credit cannot be given Mr. Henderson, and ex-councilman J. M. Mc-Vey and John W. Shannahan, for the final success of the efforts they exercised in this long-fought case. The opening of the street is one of great importance to the citizens in the northern portion of the city. The street will immediately be opened across both the C. H. & D. and L. E.
& W. tracks.

BRYAN WILL BE IN OHIO ONE DAY.

Columbus, O., Sept. 30.—It was announced that Hon. Wm. J. Bryan will be in Ohio, on October 5th, to lead assistance to the democratic cause. He will speak at Napoleon and Oak Harbor during the day and in Sandusky

at night. He had promised to give three days to the Ohio committee, but preparations for his European trip reduced this number to one.

REASSURING CIRCULAR IS

Issued to Officers and Employees Who Hold U. S. Steel Stock.

New York, Sept. 30.—The following circular was issued today, after a meeting of the finance committee of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

New York, Sept. 30, 1903.—To the officers and employees of the United States Steel Corporation and of its subsidiary companies, who subscribed
for the preferred stock of the corporation pursuant to the circular letter of December 31, 1902:

The finance committee sees no
reason to change its opinion as to the intrinsic value of the preferred stock
subscribed for pursuant to the said
circular, but of course it recognizes that the decline in the market or selling price naturally may occasion anxiety in the minds of the subscribers
under the circular. Accordingly it deems it proper now to dispel apprehension of loss by the following additional offer or guarantee:

The corporation will, at any time
during January and February, 1908
pay to every subscribing officer and employee, who shall have retained this stock for the full period of five years
and otherwise complied with the terms of the circular, $82.50 per share for
the stock, less the rebate and benefits he shall have been entitled to
under the circular (not including benefits received on account of differences between interest and dividends which he will in any event retain) provided
he wishes to sell the stock for that price at that time.

By order of the finance committee
RICHARD THIMBLE, Secy.

HAD THE MAKINGS TO KILL REGIMENT.

Allentown, Pa., Sept. 30.—The bodies of Wm. Folke, aged 30 years and his wife, aged 27 years, were found today
lying along the road leading from Allentown to Fullerton. Nearby was found a revolver with all five chambers
empty, six loaded cartridges a bottle

containing carbolic acid and a cup in which carbolic acid had been poured.
Each body had two bullet wounds in the heart. The belief is that Folke shot the woman and then himself.
The couple are survived by two children. No cause is known for the supposed murder and suicide.

PROTEST

Registered By a Party
of Citizens

Before the Board of Public Service, Today.

Do Not Want "A Supply of Water
That Would Be Pumped From Wells"—Board Also Has
Other Troubles.

This morning, a party of representative citizens, headed by J. C. Linneman, F. B. Harman, E. B. Mitchell,
A. C. Reichelderfer and others, can-cled upon the Board of Public Service,
and discussed at considerable length,
the proposition concerning the new water works storage reservoir, and water supply. They registered a protest against the consideration of any proposition which would contemplate
the use of water from wells as a supply for the city, on account of the vast amount of injury the use of hard
water will be to boilers and thus to
the manufacturing and other industries including the laundries. The conference lasted about two hours, but
no definite plan of future procedure
was agreed upon.
Water works secretary J. M. Hatch-
man, stated the board desires to dispose in favor of H. K. Fredericks, tomorrow, has served a formal notice

on the board that he will decline to step down and out until such time as his term of two years for which he was elected and for which he was required to give a large bond, shall have expired. The board has not determind
upon what course it will proceed
in the matter.

Lancaster Pa., Sept. 30.—The mail
train on the Pennsylvania R. R. which left Philadelphia, at 4:25 this morning, was wrecked a mile east of this city, and a mail car burned with all its mail. A freight train was being run to another track and the caboose
had not cleared the first track when the mail came along. The latter scraped along the caboose until the last car was reached, when the caboose and a freight car were derailed
and held fast the last mail car.
The wreck caught fire, and all three cars were burned. The wood work of the mail train was damaged, windows
broken and the side of the engine cars
crushed in. James P. McAllister, engineer of the mail train, was seriously

CALENDARS.

The Fad Is Growing Very Rapidly.

Designs by Artists are Frequently Demanded Without Regard to Cost.

One American patent medicine firm alone issues 7,000,000 calendars a year nearly one in ten to the population of the United States. That is the record order, but issues of a million or so are not few, and one big insurance company sends out between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 annually.

What becomes of them all, I wonder? said the head of a large lithographing concern. "The other day I saw it estimated that 100,000,000 calendars are issued in the United States annually. That's an absurdly low figure. The total must be at least enough to give every man, woman and child in the United States, three or four calendars."

This is the busy season of the calendar makers. Some of the orders for '04 calendars were placed last year. It is necessary to order early because the orders are so gigantic.

As a general rule, manufacturers and merchants who send out calendars to their customers wish to advertise their business directly. But this is by no means an invariable rule.

Some calendar buyers like to get the prettiest and most artistic designs procurable, and they only print their names upon the calendar in small and inconspicuous type per baps on the back.

Big corporations, especially do this. They argue that an obvious advertisement will be thrown into the waste paper basket by nine out of ten persons who receive it while an attractive calendar will be used to decorate the office or the home all the year through and thus incidentally produce its advertising effect.

The idea of calendars is being accepted more and more every year, and the direct advertisements are becoming fewer and fewer. One railroad company, which issues a fine art calendar, charges 25 cents for it, and sells many thousands of copies even though it is an advertisement of the company's business.

That is a clever move. Obviously a man will value the calendar he has bought much more than the calendar which has been given to him. But of course, this calendar has to reach the top notch of attractiveness.

The making of calendars is a profitable business for artists, who know how to hit upon popular ideas and subjects. An artistic design will fetch anywhere from $50 to $250 and there are historic cases in the calendar business where as much as $500 or $600 has been paid. Even the best known American artists do not scorn the work, although they will not always sign their names to their calendar pictures.

Sometimes, said a publisher, a customer will come to us and say that he wants a calendar designed by a famous artist whose work he has seen especially to admire. He will take nothing else and even if the artist is willing to do the work, which is not always the case, the cost is frightful.

I heard of a rich Chicago manufacturer who paid $1,000 a sketch to a well-known French artist for a very ordinary calendar which made no impression at all on the public. Another man went to a rival of mine and demanded a calendar illustrated by Lighton, the former president of the Royal Academy.

It was impossible to get it. A representative was sent to England to see Lighton and to offer him a big price. He had too much on hand and refused the commission.

I remember receiving a visit from a well-known millionaire who does a great business among the farming population in the middle western states. He was a good customer, and I was anxious to please him. He had extremely bad taste and the calendars he had selected in former years had not been popular.

I was delighted, therefore, when he chose one of the prettiest designs shown me—a pastoral scene with a Watteau shepherdess holding, not

CAN SLEEP ALL NIGHT NOW.

WHAT A BLESSING TO BE ABLE TO.

"For a long time I was obliged to get up several times during the night. I suffered so severely from Kidney and Bladder Trouble, relief seemed doubtful. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was recommended to me for this terribly distressing disease. I took it but a short time and found almost immediate relief. Instead of getting up a number of times I can now sleep all night."

GEORGE STEVENS, Co. I, National Soldiers Home, Va. Bright's Disease, Gravel, Liver Complaints, Pain in the Back, Rheumatism and Bladder Trouble, too frequent and painful passing of the water and dropsy, are all caused by disorders of the kidneys. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has cured thousands of people of these diseases, in each case restoring the patient to perfect health. It is prescribed and recommended by the best physicians in the United States. It acts directly on the kidneys and the blood. It drains the blood of all poisonous substances, such as uric acid, etc., which cause disease. Favorite Remedy is the only kidney medicine that acts as a laxative—all others constipate.

court as Queen of Love. But just as I was congratulating myself, he nearly floored me by taking half a dozen photographs out of his pocket and saying:

"I'll take 500,000 and perhaps more; but I want you to fix up the design a bit first. I'm thinking of combining business and pleasure. These are my girls' pictures, and I want 'em worked into the calendar in place of those shepherdesses."

"It will be a pleasant surprise for them—sort of delicate compliment, don't you think?" Jane's the eldest, so make her the Queen of Love, and the others can be her maids of honor."

"I looked at the photographs and saw that all the girls were homely. Jane was positively ugly. If the calendar went out in that shape, it would certainly be a failure, and the man would blame us."

"So I temporized, admired the photographs and advised him to get the girl's consent before he published them. He didn't like it—said he wanted to give the girls a nice surprise—but at last he agreed. As I expected, the girls were sensible enough to turn down his scheme."—New York Sun.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good household medicine is one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by all druggists.

HARVARD COLLEGE GETS ANOTHER BEQUEST.

New York, Sept. 30.—The will of the late Richard W. Foster of Clinton Mass., which has just been filed, contains a bequest of $25,000 for Harvard University and under certain conditions, the University becomes a still more substantial beneficiary.

To numerous missionary and church societies Mr. Foster left sums of $10,000 while the residue of his large estate he gives to the town of Clinton, for the erection and maintenance of a building to be used as a meeting place or club house for the employees of the mills and factories and the other citizens of the town.

(Copyright, 1903, by T. C. McClure.)

"Of course you knew all along." He was tearing the edges of the programme into shreds and did not look at her.

"I did not, you silly boy. How could I? You never said a word."

"But I looked."

"Lots look."

"Harvey?"

"He looks lovely."

"How do I look?"

"Bertie! You big, silly, silly kid!"

"Don't laugh at me, then. It isn't a joke."

She leaned over the plush rail of the box and let a rose leaf flutter, light as a butterfly, down to the tier below.

"You girls must have loads of proposals."

"Why?"

"Oh, you all take it so easy. You just laugh at a fellow and look pleasant and all that."

"Have you asked so many, Bertie?"

"Ten. Scored, didn't you? Honest, though, I haven't, Gwen; just you, dear."

"There was that Ferris girl."

"Who? Madge—little Madge Ferris?"

I wasn't in love with her. We just chummed. You know, Gwen. She was a great chum."

"Did you ever kiss her, Bertie?"

"Not since she was old enough to fight. That isn't anything. I've kissed you, Gwen."

Dead silence; orchestra plays "La Paloma."

"Gwen, the tip of your ear's awfully pink. Turn around, won't you? I don't care, I did. It was down at Faraway Beach, that summer. Member, Gwen? You were an awfully funny little gawky kid those days. Fuzzy hair and big eyes."

"You used to call me a walleedy frigate-ship," she said over her shoulder, and her eyes were full of dream light and her voice was low. "It was ages ago."

"And I chased you that day. You could run as fast as us boys. Way up the beach, past the cottages and the hill road, up to where the rocks began."

"There was a cave with shells in the sand, and seaweed tangled in the rocks." She bent nearer with parted lips of expectancy.

"The Green Dragon's cave, you called it. Member. And I caught you there and kissed you hard, didn't I, Gwen? And you said it wasn't fair, 'cause you turned into a mermaid as soon as you reached the cave."

"And you said you were a wave, then, and could follow. Wasn't it fun?"

"Great fun. Gwen, Gwen, darling, I wish I had you there this minute."

"I slapped you."

"And then I held your hands and kissed you again. I was good those days. Returned a kiss for a blow. And you didn't slap that time. You laughed and kissed back."

"It was ages ago."

"She bent over the rail again away from him. His eyes were so full of something—something—it unnerved her, and the others were watching. She could almost feel Harvey's gaze."

"But, dear, I've been loving you all the time. I'm not a kid, Gwen. Listen to me. Turn your head again. You're afraid."

"Of what?"

"Your eyes. They tell."

After a pause.

"Dare you to, Gwen?"

She turned her head slowly and looked at him.

"Sweetheart!"

"I'm not, Bertie, don't! Mamma's watching."

"And Harvey? Is he so very rich, Gwen? Say, Gwen, don't he look like a frog in his evening suit? Gwen, look at that old fossil and then at me. Love me, Gwen?"

"The curtain will go up in a minute. Hush!"

"Gwen?"

"Hush—dear!"

"You darling! Say it again!"

"Don't, dear! Now will you behave?"

"If I could tell him for sure, Gwen—dear, I mean—that I had you for sure you know, dear, he'd stand by us; I know he would. He isn't like the women. All they think of is landing a fellow like Harvey and his cash. Dad knows I love you. He'd give me a start dear heart. It would be fun starting together, wouldn't it, Gwen? You're young, and I'm young. I would do anything in life with you to say 'Go ahead.' Gwen!"

"The curtain is rising."

"Never mind. The rest will look at the stage. Just give me your hand if you're afraid, sweetheart—just your hand for answer. When I bend forward put your hand down, and they won't see. Please, Gwen. Then I'll be good, dear. Just to be sure. Your eyes told anyway. Oh, you darling!"

Curtain rises. Her fan falls.

Culture and Politeness in Caracas.

Caracas has a public library which contains not less than 50,000 volumes. The better class of citizens are not only educated as we understand the word, but are accomplished to a degree not common in North America. Both sexes are able to speak three or four languages besides their own and are well up in art and music. As for politeness, there are no such people under the sun. Whenever a Venezuelan, male or female, writes a letter, whether to a dear friend or stranger, he or she invariably concludes it with the words, Beao, hermano, "I kiss your hands," and whenever a Venezuelan gentleman meets a lady, whether it be his sweetheart or his grandmother, he bestows to assure her that such "times at his feet."

DANGER IN THE HIGH DIVE.

Deaths as a frequent result to those not initiated.

"Except for those who have an especial aptitude for it—and they are few—high diving is a dangerous pastime to indulge in," said a diving expert the other day. "A good diver may occasionally lose his balance, but, being generally cool headed, he can regain it, or at any rate sufficiently so as to prevent injury to himself."

"In the majority of cases deafness is the most frequent injury inflicted by diving. The cause of this is that few find it easy to drop the head sufficiently to get it well between the arms. The result is they receive some tremendous blows on the head, and if the water is struck a bit sideways the ear gets most of the concussion, and the result will frequently be a rupture of the membrane of the tympanum. A good preventive for such an accident is to place in the ears a little medicated wool or cotton dipped in oil."

"Another injury to health caused frequently by diving arises from getting large quantities of water into the lungs. The extent of the harm done in cases of this sort depends on the condition of the water as to its cleanliness. I have often seen boys, for instance, dive into water at places where it was absolutely filthy from the evacuation of drainage into it. The danger to health, especially to those with not overstrong constitutions, can readily be seen."

"The higher the dive the longer, of course, will be the duration under water. Now, an inexperienced diver is rarely able to hold his breath under water for more than a second or two at a time, and if the dive is an unusually high one he will in nine cases out of ten give up the struggle in trying to retain his breath and invariably, too, just before his head reaches the surface. The result not infrequently is that the water that has escaped into his lungs and stomach is far more than is good for him, and to many it is positively injurious."

"The best thing I know of to bring one quickly to the surface in high diving is to have a piece of cork fastened under each armpit. Corks weighing four ounces each are sufficiently strong in buoyancy for a man of 150 pounds in weight. There are many devices by which the corks can be kept secured under the armpits. Perhaps the simplest is to sew each cork into a tight fitting canvas or cotton bag and then again sew each bag on to the bathing suit by a couple of strands, allowing the strands to run over the shoulders."

"Those with weak hearts," the expert added, "cannot be so strongly advised against high diving. The spring, the rush through space, the break and the entering and cleaving of the water are altogether too exciting for weak hearts, and especially so in cold weather."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Miser's Last Wish.

A Greek died in the small town of Caracal, having always lived on the alms of his compatriots. Before dying he made his wife swear that she would bury him in the dirty old overcoat which he wore every day. The poor woman had to ask the Greeks of Caracal to help her to provide the costs of the funeral. A good hearted Greek went to see her in her affliction and, pointing to the body, said he would give her a better coat to bury the man in. Then she told him of the dead man's last wish. The Greek, whose suspicions were awakened, told her that she should certainly not part with the body before she had well examined the coat, for there must be some particular reason for the request. The widow unpicked the lining of the overcoat and found 35,000 francs in bank notes which the miser wished to take into the grave with him.

The General's Noor.

Like Cyrano de Bergerac, General B. of the regular army was possessed of a nose which excited curiosity, if not comment, wherever he appeared. At one of the hops given at the post the dancers wore fancy dress and masks. The general's partner chanced to be a vivacious young thing who had never met him before. Nor was she any the wiser as to his identity when, following the custom at mask balls, he removed the covering from his face. His partner followed suit, and her prattle ceased for awhile. Then she remarked, reproachfully: "Oh, but it isn't fair! You haven't taken off your nose!"—New York Herald.

The Ruling Passion.

The prospective heirs of the dying miser come silently into his sick room. The physician is seated by the side of the patient, a finger on his pulse. "How is our dear uncle today, doctor?" ask the prospective heirs. "There is small change in his condition," whispers the doctor. The dying miser rouses himself by a supreme effort. "Small change?" he gasps. "Put—it—in—my—pocket!"—Judge.

On the Sabbath.

In Scotland once a drunken man met a clergyman chasing his runaway dog on Sunday. "Tammas," said the breathless clergyman, "I am sorry to see you in this condition, but whistle for my dog. He is running away." Tammas regarded the speaker with gravity and said: "Whistle? I may drink whisky, but I'll no whistle for my dog on the Lord's day."

His Souvenir.

"Bring any souvenirs back from your trip?"

"One only, but it cost a lot."

"What was it?"

"Empty pocketbook."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

AWFUL Mistake of Target Tender Was the Cause

Of the Fatal Wreck at Elwood.

Became Excited and Threw
Crossing Against the
L. E. & W.

Engineer and Fireman Ran Back
Over Tank and Jumped, But Brakeman Armstrong Was Caught in the Wreck.

The remains of William W. Armstrong, the L. E. & W. brakeman who was crushed to death in the wreck on that road one mile west of Elwood, were brought to this city on passenger train No. 2 at 5 o'clock last evening and were removed to the home of the deceased family on north Pine street. The remains were accompanied by conductor M. H. Lynch, who went to the scene of the accident from Tipton and took charge of the body as a representative of Lima Division Order of Railway Conductors of which organization the deceased was a member.

The funeral of the unfortunate brakeman will be held from the residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Rev. A. D. Woldinger, pastor of Calvary Reformed church will conduct the services and the members of the O. R. C. will attend in a body. The remains will be consigned to a final resting place in Woodlawn cemetery.

AWFUL BLUNDER Made by the Target Tender Caused the Fatal Wreck.

The wreck in which brakeman Armstrong lost his life was the result of an awful blunder that was made by a young man who was stationed at the Union Traction Line crossing to attend the target. The crossing was not an interlocker equipped with a switch but was a switch crossing like that in use at the crossing of the L. E. & W. and C. H. & D. between Wayne and North streets in this city. Some time before the arrival of the L. E. & W. train the crossing was thrown in favor of the traction line to permit a gravel train to cross and after this train passed the target tender threw the crossing back into position for the L. E. & W. The L. E. & W. train passed the traction line gravel train near Hobbs and as it reached the crossing west of Elwood Engineer Paulis saw that the target and crossing were in his favor but when the engine was within a few car lengths of the crossing, the target tender heard the rumbling of the approaching train and rushing out of the little target tender he threw the crossing against the train, evidently believing that the train was another on the traction line or that he had failed to replace the crossing for the L. E. & W. after the traction line train had passed.

The three men in the cab of the engine had but a moment's warning and not time enough for Brakeman Armstrong who was on the fireman's seat box on the left side of the big battleship. Engineer Paulis reversed his engine and threw the air lever into the emergency notch and both he and fireman Jones, realizing the danger of attempting to get off between the engine and tank, ran back over the coal and jumped from the top of the tank. Brakeman Armstrong attempted to get off between the engine and tank on the fireman's side but the instant he reached the left side of the deck the engine struck the crossing and made a frightful lunge to the left and turned so far that the brakeman was caught between the forward end of the tank and the rear of the engine. Lived About Five Minutes.

The rails of the crossing and of the traction line gave way beneath the heavy battleship and the big machine was tilted partly over on its left side when it stopped. As soon as possible Engineer Paulis and Fireman Jones rushed to the aid of the brakeman but found they could do nothing to save the life of the unfortunate man. He was still conscious but the only words they heard him speak were "My God, do I have to die like this?" Fireman Jones climbed up to him on the engine and placing his arms around him held the victim's head on his shoulder until the end came about five minutes later. The body was pinioned in a space not more than half the width necessary to let it through and an iron handle had to be knocked off of the engine before the body could be released.

Brakeman Armstrong's watch was found in the back lid of the case but the crystal and works were not broken. There was scarcely a mark on the unfortunate man's body to show how his death was caused but his internal injuries were terrible, his ribs being frightfully crushed.

Another Accident Recalled.
The Elwood accident and the manner in which it was caused recalls the one that occurred at Red Key, Ind., a very few years ago resulting in the death of passenger engineer, Barney Montague and fireman, Will McClellan. A west bound gravel train was backed into a side track to permit an east bound passenger train to pass and the head brakeman after closing the switch sat down near the switch stand and evidently fell asleep. When the noise of the approaching passenger train running at a rate of fifty miles an hour awakened the brakeman he sprang to his feet and threw the switch open. In another instant the passenger engine crashed into the freight engine and fireman McClellan was instantly killed and Engineer Montague sustained injuries from which he died in the hospital in this city a few days later.

PLANS Will Be Completed for Running Cars to Lima

By First of Year at the Meeting, Oct. 6.

Ft. Wayne End of Electric
Line Will Be Completed
Early Next Year.

Company Has Not Been Compelled
to Go Into Open Market for Money, and Is in Fine Financial Condition.

The meeting of the stockholders of the Ft. Wayne, Van Wert & Lima Traction Co., which was to have been held in this city this afternoon was necessarily postponed until Oct. 6, owing to the inability of several of the stockholders to be present. The Ft. Wayne News The News learned on the most reliable authority today that the company will at the meeting Oct. 6th, complete plans to run cars into Lima, Ohio, this year, and the line will be operated as far west from that point as the line can be completed. It is highly probable that the cars can be run as far west as Van Wert. The Ft. Wayne end of the line will be completed early in the spring. The company will be able to accomplish this work without depending on outside capital. The assessments against the individual stockholders will be sufficient to meet all of the requirements up to the end of the year. Thus far, the cost of construction has been borne by the stockholders and the issue of new stock will all be taken by the present stockholders. Bonds will be issued with this new stock to the stockholders. The company has not been obliged to go into the open market with its bonds and at present the line is in a most satisfactory financial condition. Its construction has been on a thoroughly safe basis and the promoters are highly pleased with the progress thus far. The delay in getting material has had the effect of delaying the completion of the Lima end of the road but this work will be pushed rapidly after Oct. 5th.

SPECIAL Meeting Called for Last Night, And the Board Awarded the High School Bonds.

Progress of the Ward Buildings
Was Discussed, But Little
Business of Importance Transacted.

The board of education met in adjourned session last night, for the purpose in particular of awarding the bonds for the new high school. The committee reported in favor of W. R. Todd & Co., of Cincinnati, whose bid was the highest among the list of those whose names were published last night.

The roll call found President Prophet, Fredericks, Metheny, Spyker, Terwilliger, Mooney, Blattenberg, Klatte, Donahue and Miss Disman present and of the number Mr. Spyker was the only one who voted against the awarding of the bonds.

The call did not provide for the transaction of general business but new ward buildings are always open for debate and the subject was up for discussion last night. The ground has been purchased the plans and specifications adopted and work on the buildings will soon be progressing rapidly.

Several small bills were allowed, as follows: Allen Offenbacher $9, E. A. Prophet $1 and Ellen Lytle 50 cents.

The supply committee was instructed to make a contract for all of the laundry work required at the various buildings. The board will hold a special meeting next Monday night.

TAG YOUR DOGS.

Tomorrow the provision of the municipal law which requires that a tag be placed upon all dogs kept within the corporate limits of this city becomes operative. The policemen have been instructed to shoot all dogs not tagged which are found running at large after this date. Tags may be obtained at the office of the city auditor in the City building and cost 25 cents each.

CLOSED.
Michael's store will be closed all day tomorrow on account of holiday.

Funeral Services Attending the Burial of E. L. Lay Were Held This Morning.

The last sad rites over the remains of Edward L. Lay were held at St. Rose church this morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Roman of St. Joseph's College Collegeville, Ind. sang the high mass of requiem and preached a most eloquent funeral sermon paying a grand tribute to the life of the deceased young man. The casket was buried in a wealth of beautiful flowers which were silent testimonials of the love and esteem of den and near friends. The following young friends of the deceased were the bearers of the pall: Albert Clay, Joseph Arthur, Colver, Harry, Plenum, James Noonan, Lewis Connelly and J. M. Dufresne.

The following friends and relatives of the bereaved family from out of the city were here to attend the funeral services: Wm. H. Wagner and Milton M. Wagner of Sidney; John Manger and daughter, Miss Tillie Manger of Botkins; Miss Louis Gutman of Gutman Station; Mr. and Mrs. Harry George of Dayton; Wade Young of Columbus; Wm. Smith of Lorain; and Miss Lizzie Lay of Delphos. The interment was made in Gethsemani cemetery.

These values exist on paper only and the customer never gets them; in fact he never expects to find them. People are disgusted with this method of advertising.

What Makes Trade?

It's the pleased customer telling his friends where he was treated right and where his money was well spent. We treat our patrons fairly give them scripture measure for their money, and guarantee every article of clothing we sell. One tells another and so our business grows.

You will find here all the very NEWEST things in FALL CLOTHING. We have the largest and best line of HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX Ready to Wear Clothes that we have ever shown, and our PRICES ARE RIGHT.
